

EMT100 EMT Lecture Syllabus

Reviewed/Published 09/2020

Campus Information

Department

Student Services
Program Director
Admissions Director

Email

studentservices@camsenedu.com
jcampbell@camsenedu.com
acampbell@camsenedu.com

Office Hours

Monday - Friday 0900-1700
By Appointment
By Appointment

Course Name and Objective

EMT Lecture 116 hours

This course is designed to provide entry-level training into the prehospital or hospital setting. Students will learn basic skills and will be competent in functioning in the emergency setting as an EMT. Upon successful completion of this course the student will receive a certificate of completion.

**Note: This is a clock hour program only.

Course Description

This residential based course includes class activities at the campus for the full 13 week duration of the EMT Program. This class includes all aspects of emergency or basic care. Some topics covered include cardiac and respiratory emergencies, trauma and special populations. This also includes 4 hours of mandatory HIV/AIDS Awareness training.

**Note: There are no prerequisites for this course, however all students will need to have American Heart Association's Basic Life Support for the Healthcare Provider, or equivalent, prior to the start of the 4th week of the course. Additionally, students must meet all admission requirements as set forth in the Program Catalog.

Required Textbook/Materials

The required textbook for this course is: Emergency Care of the Sick and Injured 11th Edition

Publisher: American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons (AAOS) 2017

- The textbook is provided to the student as part of the program cost.
- There are not any other required materials for this program, and any recommended material will be discussed at the discussion and recommendation of the Lead Instructor.

Grading Scale

Exams	Quizzes	Grading Scale
There are 12 in-class exams, all worth 100pts. And a 13 th exam grade that will be equivalent to the quiz grade. These 13 grades will be the only grades used to calculate the overall course grade.	There are 13 in-class quizzes, all worth 10 points. All 13 quizzes will be averaged together to exam the 13 th exam grade.	A 100-90 B 89-80 C 79-70 F 69 and below Students are unsuccessful and must repeat the course if they earn less than a 70%.

EMT101 EMT Lab Syllabus

Reviewed/Published 09/2020

Campus Information

Department

Student Services
Program Director
Admissions Director

Email

studentservices@camsenedu.com
jcampbell@camsenedu.com
acampbell@camsenedu.com

Office Hours

Monday - Friday 0900-1700
By Appointment
By Appointment

Course Name and Objective

EMT Lab 60 hours

This course is designed to provide entry-level training into the prehospital or hospital setting. Students will learn basic skills and will be competent in functioning in the emergency setting as an EMT. Upon successful completion of this course the student will receive a certificate of completion.

**Note: This is a clock hour program only.

Course Description

This residential based course includes class activities at the campus for the full 13 week duration of the EMT Program. This class includes all aspects of emergency or basic care. Some topics covered include cardiac and respiratory emergencies, trauma and special populations. This course will incorporate the hands on aspect of the skills taught in EMT100.

**Note: There are no prerequisites for this course, however all students will need to have American Heart Association's Basic Life Support for the Healthcare Provider, or equivalent, prior to the start of the 4th week of the course. Additionally, students must meet all admission requirements as set forth in the Program Catalog.

Required Textbook/Materials

The required textbook for this course is: Emergency Care of the Sick and Injured 11th Edition

Publisher: American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons (AAOS) 2017

- The textbook is provided to the student as part of the program cost.
- There are not any other required materials for this program, and any recommended material will be discussed at the discussion and recommendation of the Lead Instructor.

Grading Scale

Exams

There are 2 in-class practical exams, all worth 100pts. These 2 grades will be the only grades used to calculate the overall course grade.

Quizzes

There are no quizzes given during this course.

Grading Scale

A 100-90
B 89-80
C 79-70
F 69 and below

**Students are unsuccessful and must repeat the course if they earn less than a 70%.

EMT102 Hospital Externship Syllabus

Reviewed/Published 09/2020

Campus Information

Department

Student Services
Program Director
Admissions Director

Email

studentservices@camsenedu.com
jcampbell@camsenedu.com
acampbell@camsenedu.com

Office Hours

Monday - Friday 0900-1700
By Appointment
By Appointment

Course Name and Objective

EMT Hospital Externship 24 hours

This course is designed to provide entry-level training into the prehospital or hospital setting. Students will learn basic skills and will be competent in functioning in the emergency setting as an EMT. Upon successful completion of this course the student will receive a certificate of completion.

**Note: This is a clock hour program only.

Course Description

These externship hours are completed off site in the Hospital Emergency Room setting. This provides the ability for the student to demonstrate skills on live patients.

**Note: There are no prerequisites for this course, however all students will need to have American Heart Association's Basic Life Support for the Healthcare Provider, or equivalent, prior to the start of the 4th week of the course. Additionally, students must meet all admission requirements as set forth in the Program Catalog.

Required Textbook/Materials

The required textbook for this course is: Emergency Care of the Sick and Injured 11th Edition

Publisher: American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons (AAOS) 2017

- The textbook is provided to the student as part of the program cost.
- There are not any other required materials for this program, and any recommended material will be discussed at the discussion and recommendation of the Lead Instructor.

Grading Scale

Exams

There are no exams in this course. The final grade indicates successful or unsuccessful completion of the required externship hours.

Quizzes

There are no quizzes given during this course.

Grading Scale

A 24 hours completed
F less than 24 hours completed
**Students are unsuccessful and must repeat the course if they do not complete the required 24 hours.

EMT103 Field Externship Syllabus

Reviewed/Published 09/2020

Campus Information

Department

Student Services
Program Director
Admissions Director

Email

studentservices@camsenedu.com
jcampbell@camsenedu.com
acampbell@camsenedu.com

Office Hours

Monday - Friday 0900-1700
By Appointment
By Appointment

Course Name and Objective

EMT Hospital Externship 100 hours

This course is designed to provide entry-level training into the prehospital or hospital setting. Students will learn basic skills and will be competent in functioning in the emergency setting as an EMT. Upon successful completion of this course the student will receive a certificate of completion.

**Note: This is a clock hour program only.

Course Description

These externship hours are completed off site in the Prehospital Emergency Transport setting. These hours provide the student the ability to demonstrate skills and abilities in the emergency setting of an Ambulance or Rescue unit.

**Note: There are no prerequisites for this course, however all students will need to have American Heart Association's Basic Life Support for the Healthcare Provider, or equivalent, prior to the start of the 4th week of the course. Additionally, students must meet all admission requirements as set forth in the Program Catalog.

Required Textbook/Materials

The required textbook for this course is: Emergency Care of the Sick and Injured 11th Edition

Publisher: American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons (AAOS) 2017

- The textbook is provided to the student as part of the program cost.
- There are not any other required materials for this program, and any recommended material will be discussed at the discussion and recommendation of the Lead Instructor.

Grading Scale

Exams

There are no exams in this course. The final grade indicates successful or unsuccessful completion of the required externship hours.

Quizzes

There are no quizzes given during this course.

Grading Scale

A 100 hours completed
F less than 100 hours completed
**Students are unsuccessful and must repeat the course if they do not complete the required 100 hours.